Graduation Day for Three Veteran TV Teen Volunteers

TV Operations Manager Among 11 To Receive Prince Gallitzin Cross At June 3 Altoona Award Banquet

Proclaim! TV Operations Manager Rev. Chuck Bridges is one of eleven individuals who will receive the 2017 Prince Gallitzin Cross Award in a June 3 ceremony in Blair County.

Bishop Mark L. Bartchak presents the award on an annual basis to priests, religious, or laity who exhibit the "evangelizing spirit" of Father Demetrius Gallitzin, the Prince-Priest and Servant of God known as the Apostle of The Alleghenies.

Father Bridges is the second member of the TV Ministry to receive the Gallitzin Cross. Dino A. Tessari who founded the live Mass telecast 30 years ago and continues to serve as Executive Producer, was honored with the Cross at the 2003 awards dinner.

The event will take place at the Calvin House in Duncansville.

A complete list of this year's recipients appears on the Altoona-Johnstown diocesan website.

June is the traditional month of graduations and three veteran members of our TV team are preparing for their high school commencements and looking forward to entering higher education.

We congratulate seniors Jordan Barzensky David Brothers, and Jacob Schulte as they enter this exciting new phase of their education careers.

Jordan, a Senior at Bishop McCort High in Johnstown, has announced that she will begin her studies at Seton Hill College in Greensburg, where she will major in Biology and Mathematics.. Jordan's enthusiasm and creative attitude continues to serve as an inspiration to all of us.

Dave, a Senior at United High School in Armagh, Indiana County, will enter the Pittsburgh campus of Triangle Tech, where he plans to major in HVAC field. In spite of injuries during his stand-out high school football career, Dave always maintained a positive attitude of kindness and a sincere desire to learn new things and be of service.

Jake, a Senior at Bishop McCort, will enter Saint Francis University at Loretto, where he plans to pursue studies in Environmental Engineering and continue his outstanding sports career on the Cross Country and Track and Field teams. He has hopes of one day representing the United States as a member of the Olympic team. As a valued member of the TV team, Jake brought the same level of determination to the Ministry that he demonstrated in his sports and academic activities throughout his career

We salute these three outstanding teens as they enter a new phase of their lives and look ahead to many great adventures and opportunities. God's blessings upon you!

A Major Gift to Our TV Ministry

We are very grateful to Mr. Frank Quitoni, General Manager of WATM-TV for a most generous gift to our TV Ministry.

The donation consists of a complete studio lighting package with all related accessories, as well as two studio camera pedestals, and related control room video monitoring equipment.

The gift is an exceptional one and will greatly enhance our ability to present a first-class telecast of the Sunday Mass.

The studio lighting package was taken out of service at the former WATM-TV studios on Scalp Avenue when the ABC-TV affiliate moved to its new quarters on Hickory Lane.

The donation provides us with an opportunity to install much needed lighting when our choirs perform in the balcony of the Cathedral, and the new pedestals will provide the perfect mounts for our two newly-acquired studio cameras.

Our Live, Local Televised Mass: Exceeding All National Church Guidelines

It has been 20 years since the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops issued guidelines for telecasting for Mass. The guidelines were updated in 2014 to reflect changes brought about by publication of the new edition of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

In publishing the directives the bishops have recognized the fact that millions of Catholic are not able to fulfill their Mass obligation due to advanced age, infirmity, or severe weather conditions.

The Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown has been a pioneer in addressing the needs of those unable to get to church in person, especially when it endorsed the telecast of the Mass nearly three decades ago.

It was decided that the Mass would be telecast live from a real worship environment with an actual congregation present and would run for a full hour in a realistic time slot.

The initial effort was a modest one, headed by WJAC-TV Operations Manager Dino Tessari and a small crew of volunteers, both professional broadcasters and novices, with only basic equipment.

In the early years, the telecast was confined to the Public Access Channel of what is now the Atlantic Broadband cable system, serving the immediate Johnstown area.

Those modest beginnings increased our desire to serve a much larger audience. This desire became a reality on December 2, 2001 when the Mass moved to WWCP-TV FOX Channel 8, airing for the first time on broadcast television. The Mass later moved to WATM-TV ABC 23, where it continues to air in its same 11 am-noon time slot.

The telecast is also carried on the Cornerstone TV Faith and Family Channel out of Wall, PA.

In compliance with Federal Communications Commission requirements, closed captioning is now a part of our live TV Mass, greatly benefitting those viewers who are hearing impaired.

Our Mass signal is now transmitted by means of a modern KU-Band satellite uplink, giving us the ability to make our telecast available to much of the North American continent

When we announced our satellite campaign we chose the slogan The Sky's the Limit, reflecting a desire to bring our TV Mass to a previously unserved audience.

We remain dedicated to bringing Mass to the masses; with your help we hope to continue doing so.
