Our Live TV Mass: An Ultimate Form of Parish Outreach

We Greatly Appreciate the Support of
 Our Many Viewers and Contributors
 During the Lenten and Easter Seasons

During this Holy Season of the Resurrection of the Lord we give thanks to God for His many blessings bestowed upon our TV Ministry.

We are especially thankful for the many persons who sent Easter gifts our way in the form of support of our Minute-a-Month Ministry initiative, which plays a major role in keeping our live Mass telecast on the air every week of the year.

The generosity and prayers of our supporters and viewers is a blessing to all of us in the TV ministry, and encourages our volunteer TV team members to continue donating their time and talents to the production of the live TV Mass.

Gifts come to us in many forms, including cash donations that pay a major portion of the costs incurred in presenting the live TV Mass every Sunday.

We deeply appreciate the extra gifts we received already this year from supporters who included an extra "bonus" to help us get the new year off to a successful start. Thanks for your prayers and support.

A hallmark of any local parish is the ability to reach beyond the parish borders to send the good news into the larger community.

We feel that our Sunday live Mass telecast does a remarkable job of reaching many thousands every week by means of broadcast television.

Our full hour live telecast of the Mass from Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown may well represent the ultimate local parish outreach in any diocese in America. Our ability to present the telecast from an historic worship site using professional broadcast equipment, a skilled team of technical personnel, coupled with a modern satellite signal transmission capability enables us to create a package that is exceptional and highly pleasing to the home viewers. The entire Mass is closed captioned as required by the FCC and appreciated by viewers who are hearing impaired.

The fact that we present our telecast with an all-volunteer crew makes it even more exceptional.

The reward we receive comes in the form of many expressions of appreciation from the viewers who join us every Sunday. A substantial number of viewers are homebound and cannot attend church in person, making our televised Mass their primary means of maintaining a connection with the faith.

We feel it is accurate to state that our congregation is the largest in the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese and one of the biggest in America.

Thanks to our supporters, volunteers, and loyal viewers, we believe that our Sunday telecast represents the ultimate local parish outreach!

Memorial Gifts Honor the Memory of Helen Irene Tessari

All of us involved in the TV ministry join in mourning the death of Mrs. Irene Tessari, the wife of Dino Tessari, the founder and executive producer of our live Mass telecast.

Mrs. Tessari passed from this world on Holy Saturday morning following an extended illness. She received the Final Sacraments of the Church less than 24 hours earlier on the morning of Good Friday, in preparation for her journey to the Lord.

Her Funeral Mass was celebrated on April 19 at Saint Benedict Church in Johnstown, with burial at Saint Anthony of Padua Cemetery in Windber.

Her passing ended a marriage union of more than 67 years that began on October 15, 1950 in her hometown of Whiteville, North Carolina, where she and Dino were wed in Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

It is often said that behind every great man is a great woman. That slogan could not be more true in the case of Irene, who knew the demands of the broadcast industry and always demonstrated great patience and understanding in coping with Dino's long hours on the job in leadership positions in commercial TV, starting with NBC in Washington, DC, followed by a distinguished 30-year career at WJAC-TV, Channel 6 in Johnstown, where he rose to the position of Operations Manager.

Irene remained unwavering in her support as Dino accepted his greatest professional challenge: to produce a live telecast of the Sunday Mass from Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown.

What began as a modest effort on the Johnstown cable system nearly 30 years ago is now a first-class operation on broadcast television serving a vast audience every week

As we pray for Irene Tessari, we ask her to pray for us, sure that one day we shall see her again.
