Making Our TV Mass Worldwide Through the Internet!

Our Live TV Mass: Being Watched
By Thousands of Grateful Viewers,
Spreading Good News Far & Wide!

Our live Sunday Mass telecast continues to bring the Good News into the homes thousands of viewers as we work to expand the Mass to a much larger audience. (See the adjacent story on this page)

As we complete our 29th year of telecasting the live Mass, we continue to be impressed with the many and varied locations from which we receive expressions of thanks in the form of letters, e-mails, and phone calls telling us of how much the Sunday telecast means to them.

We are ever grateful to the many members of our Minute-a-Month Ministry who support our telecast with their gifts and prayers. (See page 2 for another example of an anonymous gift from a grateful viewer)

Without the support and prayers of our loyal donors and the efforts of our volunteer technical crew our telecast would not be possible. Please pray for more laborers in the field!

Plans now underway soon will result in our live TV Mass being available worldwide to anyone having a home computer or handheld device and an internet connection.

The extension of our Sunday morning Mass into the realm of social media will provide us with the opportunity to send the Mass well beyond our present service area and into the lives of many more thousands of appreciative viewers. The potential for our project is limitless and exciting as we continue one of our fundamental objectives of bringing Mass to the masses.

The project is being spearheaded by our Chief Engineer Joe Delso and Becky Wicks of WIX PIX Productions, Inc

An exact timeline has not been established for the debut of our telecast on the worldwide web, but the essential components have been ordered to begin the process and we hope to launch our testing procedures in the near future

WATM-TV ABC 23 and the Cornerstone TV Faith and Family Channel in Pittsburgh will continue to be our primary affiliates in bringing the TV Mass into the homes of our loyal viewers, but the new initiative will present us with an unprecedented opportunity to bring the live Mass into the lives of so many not presently served. In addition, there exists the possibility of archiving some of the Masses for future viewing.

It's all part of our long-range plan to spread the Good News far and wide! With the help of God and your support we will make it happen!

Our Generous Anonymous Donors: Playing a Major Role in Our Telecast

We wish to acknowledge our many donors who wish to remain anonymous.

A recent example is a grateful viewer's gift of a large collection of silver coins to our TV Ministry.

The total value of the coins: $645.00, all of which will be used to help keep us on the air!

The donor of this generous gift does not wish to be identified, but this marks the second time he has contributed a part of his collection for the benefit of our telecast.

More Praises for Our TV Team From Grateful Viewers

Dear Proclaim!

My mother passed away on January 29, 2017, just a few days before her 94th birthday. She had been unable to attend Mass for several years and was very fortunate to view your TV Mass.

She faithfully watched the Mass every Sunday. As a matter of fact, she watched her final TV Mass just a few hours before she unexpectedly passed away that same afternoon.

Enclosed is a check in her memory to be used for the TV Mass fund.

Thank you so much for the wonderful service you provide to so many.

-MCN, Jenners (Somerset County)

Dear Proclaim!

My late wife watched the TV Mass every Sunday, and it meant so much to her.

I am a Eucharistic Minister, and I would give her Communion at the same moment distribution of the Eucharist took place at the Mass on television.

--Anon, Portage, PA (Cambria County)

I'll be moving from the area soon and I want you to know how much the TV Mass has meant to me over the years. Keep up the good work!

--Anon, Curwensville, PA (Clearfield County)

Mr. Gruss was the father-in law of Chief Engineer Joe Delso and the father of Joe's wife, Allice.

The Funeral Mass for Mr. Gruss was offered on July 19 at Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church in South Fork.
