We Are Grateful for Memorial Gifts Honoring Those Who Have Gone To Be With The Lord

We are grateful for an ever growing number of our supporters who have made a decision to honor their departed loved ones with a memorial gift to our TV Ministry.

We frequently hear from family members as well as friends of the deceased how important the live Mass was to their loved ones during their time upon this earth, and their desire to help insure the continuation of the Mass into the future.

A comment we hear frequently is how the TV Mass played a central role in their spiritual lives, especially when they were no longer able to go to church in person, due to advanced age or illness.
