From Our Pastor . . .

Memorial Day Mass Indoors A special remembrance is the Mass that we celebrate with St. Benedict's, Geistown. Participate in this honoring of loved ones now with the Lord at 9:00 morning Mass on Memorial Day. The soggy soil and the possibility of showers have prompted our moving the Field Mass indoors to Saint Benedict's Church.

Holy Ground Gifts and Cemetery Information Thank you for your response to the Holy Ground Request from the committee for our Saint John Gualbert and Saint Joseph Cemeteries and Mausoleum. This request is twofold. As explained in the letter, we are seeking both financial gifts and interment information to properly care for the Holy Ground and Mausoleum of our two cemeteries. Your cooperation is much appreciated.

New Liturgical Ministry in Preparation Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, and Audio Operators are now entering their selections for the liturgies that celebrate Ordinary Time during the summer and early autumn. By letter or email, all ministers are receiving notice of the new scheduling cycle. Now is the time to update your ministry information. We look forward to learning your unavailable times and your selection of ministries at the annual Masses for Independence and Labor Days, the Anointing of the Sick, Saint Anne Triduum, the Solemnity of the Assumption, and Wedding Anniversaries. Call the office (536-0117), if you need a scheduling postcard. Contact Fr. Jim for help using the scheduling Web Terminal at your computer or smart device. Thank you for serving God and our Cathedral Parish community in the liturgy.

A Catholic Ministry Picture: Your gift supports fourteen ministries like Fulton County Catholic Mission. Tucked away in the mountainous, rural region of Fulton County, our Catholic faith lives and breathes evangelization at St. Stephen's Church in McConnellsburg. It is the only Catholic Church in Fulton County and the home base for the outreach mission begun in 1988. Through the works of only two Sisters of the Carmelite Community of the Word—Sister Margie Monahan and Sister Martha Burbulla—the Catholic mission helps those in dire need with rent and utilities assistance, food and lodging, clothing, and special projects to benefit children and their families. More than 1,645 individuals and families have received aid since July 2017.

Your support today of the Fulton County Catholic Mission will help the Sisters continue their works of service. They are an instrument of God's love to all in need. By drawing the poor and fragile close, we are also provided the moments to encounter the God we seek.

You can mail your gift to Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, P.O. Box 409, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648; place it with a memo in your parish offertory, or click online on at www.dioceseaj.org

Important Parent Meeting Next Sunday, June 3, at 9:45 am in the St John Gualbert Activity Center, Father Jim will gather with parents who will have children in grades K through 11 this coming September. Whether the children attend a public school, Divine Mercy, Bishop McCort, at least one parent from each family should present for the meeting. Father will explain the new settings next school year for religious education and sacramental preparation. Parents who have yet to complete the annual memorandum of understanding for Divine Mercy or the entrance memorandum for McCort should bring this document with them. Father will also invite all parents to consider in which weekend Mass ministry they and their children will participate. If you cannot attend this meeting, please contact Fr. Jim (934-9605) to schedule a meeting with him at the rectory.

2018 Catholic Ministries Drive continues to have a strong response. Early reports show that one hundred thirty households have advanced $29,549 to reach our Cathedral target. We are at eighty-five percent of our goal.

Your Catholic Ministries gift supports our Cathedral parish and diocesan ministries. Our parishioners benefit from many diocesan ministries: Camp Zacchaeus, Diaconal Formation, Campus Ministry, Christian Initiation, Lay Ministry, Catholic Charities and diocesan-wide support for our St John Gualbert Cathedral.

Our Cathedral project is simple: To reach and surpass our target. Should we exceed our target, we will add all to the $11,000 we retained from our successful 2017 Drive and assigned to the replacing the crumbling limestone pillars at the front entrance of the Cathedral.

FROM OUR PARISH

High Tea and Handbag Extravaganza: Thanks to all who attended our High Tea, to those who donated all sorts of items such as tea pots, cups, saucers, tea bags, and so much more also to those who donated their time and talents. Your presence, donations and hard work helped to make for a successful extravaganza and as promised an afternoon of great fun. To Dolly the Apron Lady - thank you for the memories. - The Christian Life & Service.

Weekly food donations will no longer be taken in the back of the Church. Please bring your food donations to the rectory. Thank you.

Families and the Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

In today's gospel Jesus commands, "Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you." This command is meant for every Christian. In light of the command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks. Jesus commands all parents to teach their children "all that I have commanded you." ~ used with permission from: A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Liturgical Reflection... Today the Church commemorates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. It is our custom to begin and end prayer in the name of the Trinity. The great doxology at Mass celebrates the triune being of God: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever. Amen. Today make the sign of the cross slowly and reflect on the words you speak. May God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, watch over us, protect us, and lead us through this life to our home in heaven. 2018, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648

Stewardship Reflections... "Jesus not only calls people to him but also forms them and sends them out in his service. Being sent on a mission is a consequence of being a disciple. Whoever wants to follow Christ will have much work to do on his behalf." (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response)
