Another Top Professional TV Award to Crispin Havener

An Invitation to YOU to Join Us For
 The Sunday Live Mass Telecast
 By Visiting Our TV Congregation

We extend a personal invitation to everyone to be a part of our live TV Mass by visiting Saint John Gualbert Cathedral at 117 Clinton Street in downtown Johnstown any Sunday of the year for the 11 am telecast.

The welcome mat is always out for visitors to our congregation who wish to experience first hand the TV Mass from the perspective of a member of the worshipping community.

By arriving early, visitors will be able to gain an appreciation of the beauty of the interior of the Cathedral and observe the setup procedures carried out by our dedicated volunteers, many of them young people interested in a career in the broadcast industry.

By joining us for the live TV Mass you will be a part of the largest congregation in the American Church, and experience live what thousands of viewers experience every Sunday as we prepare to enter our fourth decade of Bringing Mass to the Masses. (See page 3)

Former TV volunteer Crispin Havener is continuing to distinguish himself in his chosen profession.

Crispin, News Anchor and Reporter at KKCO-TV in Grand Junction, Colorado and long time videographer Chris Schumann were honored for their work in 2017 during an award ceremony in Denver on May 11, 2018.

Both received third-place awards in the Health: Enterprise category for a four-part series of reports on mental health, during the Top of the Rockies awards event at the Denver Press Club, which serves a four-state area.

Reacting to the honor, Crispin said "To be recognized alongside the great television, radio, newspaper, and online journalists of the Rocky Mountain region is a professional privilege and personal honor. I'm grateful to KKCO for allowing me to tell these in-depth stories that normally don't get the time to be told on a local TV newscast."

Crispin, who joined KKCO-TV news in 2015, was the anchor of the News at Noon when it was named "Newscast of the Year" for the Grand Junction/Montrose market.

All of us at the TV Ministry are proud of Crispin as he continues to make big strides in his professional life while continuing to serve as a role model for the young people on our TV team.

Hello,

I want to send you a donation because I enjoy and rely on your Mass on Sunday.

I am handicapped and find it hard to get to my oen church on Sundays, especially when we have bad weather with snow and ice.

I really appreciate your telecast and I'm sending a donation in appreciation.

An Expansion of Our Live TV Mass to New Horizons!

We are always ready to welcome visitors to our live TV Mass to become a part of a vast congregation that serves thousands of grateful viewers every week.

The story on page one reminds everyone that they are always most welcome to join us as part of the congregation.

Our primary viewership continues to be served by WATM-TV ABC 23 in Johnstown and the Faith and Family Channel of Cornerstone TV.

The expansion of our signal to the internet has opened a whole new field of options to viewers far and wide.

This means that the most recent Mass telecasts are now available on the website of the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese for viewing at anytime.

This is especially important to those viewers who were especially inspired by a particular live Mass telecast and would like to see it again.

We also repeat the Sunday Mass every Sunday at 9:00 pm on the Atlantic Broadband Public Access Channel 9.

In addition, Cornerstone TV also replays the Mass on two occasions during the week.

Our objective is to give home viewers as many opportunities as possible to see the Mass at a time convenient to them.

Of course, our primary audience remains to be those who tune in at 11:00 o'clock every Sunday morning to see the Liturgy live as it is seen by those actually present in Saint John Gualbert Cathedral.

Our telecast is unique in that is presented from an actual worship environment with a congregation present. (In many instances, some of the TV Masses in other places are videotaped in advance in a TV studio, many times weeks in advance.)

We feel blessed to be able to present our Mass from historic Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown, PA, in real time, in front of a congregation, on broadcast television, with the telecast produced by a volunteer technical crew that prides themselves in what they do.

Again, we invite you to check our story on page 1, inviting viewers to join us in person!
