Chad King: Living The Hollywood Dream in Shondaland

Congratulations, Kaitlyn Kasisky, Matthew 25 Youth Award Recipient

We congratulate Kaitlyn Kasisky, a member of our volunteer TV technical crew, who was honored with the Matthew 25 Youth Humanitarian Award at the Catholic Charities Annual Recognition Dinner May 30.

Kaitlyn, a grade 8 student at Divine Mercy Academy, is one of the newest members of the TV production crew, which produces the hour-long live telecast of the 11 am Sunday Mass from Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown, which airs on WATM-TV ABC 23 and the Faith and Family Channel of Cornerstone TV.

Kaitlyn's attention to detail and ability to concentrate quickly made her a valued member of the TV team.

Her primary duties are in the control room, where she is assigned as on-screen graphics and tape operator, a job that requires attention and anticipation.

We are pleased that Kaitlyn has been recognized for the many good works she performs, especially in our TV Ministry, as well as the other ways she brings the love of Christ into the lives of all those she works with. We are proud of Kaitlyn and wish her well!

At a very early age Chad King knew he wanted to be a filmmaker. Chad, a 2011 Bishop McCort graduate, class Salutatorian, and member of the National Honor Society, is well on his way toward achieving his dream.

The former Proclaim! TV teen, with impressive credentials under his belt, is playing an important role at Shondaland, where some of the most exciting developments in the TV industry are now unfolding.

Shonda Rhimes, showrunner for ABC-TV network series Grey's Anatomy and Scandal, in addition to other top-rated productions, raised eyebrows in the TV industry when she revealed that future productions would air on Netflix.

Chad informed us of the latest news in an e-mail from Hollywood: "We are moving offices! Netflix purchased Raleigh Studios and is renovating the main building to be our new home--complete with an executive chef. Fancy! The lot at large will be the future filming location for many Shondaland/Netflix productions." Chad promises to send photos of the big event!

In other breaking news, Chad tells us that Netflix and Shondaland have acquired the rights to a viral New York Magazine article "How Anna Delvey Tricked New York's Party People." Shonda will write the series adaptation--the first project to be announced under the blockbuster overall deal she inked at Netflix last August.

All of us at the TV Ministry are happy for Chad's upward movement and the new opportunities that are opening for him.

Chad summed up his present situation by stating "Just know that I'm in an exciting place!"

Your Prayers and Support Help Keep Us On The Air!

We cannot overstate the importance of our viewers and supporters whose generosity keeps us on the air every week of the year.

The names appearing on the inside of this and every monthly newsletter represent a commitment on the part of our supporters who appreciate what we do every week in bringing the live telecast of the 11 am Sunday Mass into the homes of thousands of viewers, many of them homebound and unable to get to Mass.

Many of our supporters dedicate their listing in memory of a departed loved one, as a means of keeping alive the memory of someone who was dear to them in this life.

With our telecast now available on the internet as well as broadcast television, we are able to reach a larger than ever audience.

From time to time we invite priests from other parishes to join us as guest celebrants for the live Mass, affording viewers an opportunity to experience a variety of liturgical styles and new perspectives on the message of the homily.

The common objective we all share is the desire to bring Mass to The Masses, especially to those viewers unable to get to church due to reasons beyond their control.

From time to time we also hear from persons who have become disconnected from the faith for whatever reason, and, in viewing our TV Mass, have been inspired to return to an active role in their own faith community.

Your help and support makes all of this possible. Thank you so much!
