From Our Pastor . . .

Rite of Sending At this Sunday's 11:00 AM Mass, we will send forth Christine Bywater and Makaylee Duvall for acceptance by Bishop Mark of God's and our election of them as fit and ready for their final, more intense preparation for Easter sacraments. As they write their names in the Book of the Elect, Christine and Makaylee pledge their fidelity to enter fully into the life of the Church. Amy Wadsworth, Christine's Godparent and Evonne Yanzetich-Homway, Makaylee's Godmother will affirm their readiness for our sending them and accompany them to the Rite of Election and Enrollment. Also gathering with Bishop Mark at our Cathedral this Sunday at 7:00 PM is Halle Bair and her Sponsor Helen Oparnico. Bishop Mark will greet Halle as she accepts God's call to continuing conversion in her preparation for reception of the Eucharist.

May Christine, Makaylee, and Halle find guidance and wisdom and grace flowing from the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Amy Wadsworth, our door ticket agent; Susan Babalonis, our basket ticket agent; Elizabeth Gramlich, our 50/50 ticket agent; our twelve very hard working table servers and Janet Swanhart, who came out of retirement to prepare the delicious spaghetti dinner. Her outstanding kitchen helpers, including five of our St Croix travelers: Monica Kendera, Dave Harteis, Ray Ritter, Eileen Zibura, and first-timer Geoffrey Stumpo. Carli Jezeskie and Father Jim who made the ticket drawing so much fun. Thanks also everyone who came to support our ties with our Jamaican and Kenyan brothers and sisters at Saint Croix Parish, Santa Cruz and their mission church of Christ the King, Braes River.

I would like to extend thanks and gratitude to all those who remembered me in any way with cards, prayers, text messages and phone calls during my recent illness of Ramsay Hunt Syndrome. I continue to get stronger each day and I am glad to be back making music at the Cathedral parish especially during this season of Lent.
