From the Office . . .

Saint Croix, Arrive! Thanks to your generous support Monica Kendera, Dave Harteis, Fr. Jim and first-time mission-travelers Joel Martin and Geoff Stumpo arrive safely at our Sister Parish in Santa Cruz, Jamaica. While on the island, they are renewing our parish's faith friendships with Father Thomas Ngigi and Sisters Hellen, Rose Cathrine, Juliet, and Agnes along with the faith community of Saint Croix parish. Father Thomas has invited the team's guys to make the parish rectory their home, while the Sisters host Monica.

Our Saint John Gualbert team are "sprucing up" where it is needed at the medical clinic and church buildings, and paint the convent. They have been painting the convent this week. They have been attending daily Mass and meeting our sister parish's parishioners and those to whom they minister. During the week they will participate in more faith sharing activities and visit the homebound.

2019 Catholic Ministries Drive Give Help, Build Hope, Change Lives.

Priests' Vocations needs your support! 100% of your gift will make a difference!

Did you know that Seminary school is as costly and more time consuming than college? Men that want to become a priest have to take five to eight years of seminary studies depending on whether they have any previous college experience..

How does Priests' Vocations give help, build hope, and change lives?

Give Help: Priests' Vocations helps the men with their tuition so that they don't have to struggle financially to become a priest. It also provides them with support and the necessities of becoming a priest so that they can fully follow Jesus Christ.

Build Hope: Knowing that Priests' Vocations will help them, the seminarians are hopeful that they will become a priest and go forth within the Diocese to spread the Gospel.

Change Lives: By helping with Priests' Vocations, you are changing multiple people's lives. As priests develop a closer bond with Jesus Christ through the mass and the sacraments, they can help us do the same.

"Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him." - Mark 1:17-18 15

Be Good Shepherd: You can mail your gift to the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, P.O. Box 409, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648; place it in the weekend offertory, or donate online at www.dioceseaj.org. Please click on the giving icon.

- The disciples caught an abundance of fish only with Jesus' help. May we recognize that everything in our "net" comes from God. Jesus sends us into the world to share these blessings with others.

Wise Words of Wisdom: What a different world it would be if we tried every day to reach out to each other with what little we have. We are the only wealth there is. How I wish we could... find a way to reach into the heart of another and find the gold that is there. -Trappist Father James Behrens Jn 21: 1-19 - Jesus invited the disciples to "Come and have breakfast." At this beach breakfast and the Last Supper, Jesus teaches us meals should be more than eating. Family meals are opportunities to share prayer, listen to each other's stories, understand and support one another.

Families and the Gospel John 21:1-19

When Peter announced, “I am going fishing” he was doing something that he had done every day since childhood. Little did he know that he would meet the risen Christ in such an ordinary activity. Today’s gospel teaches us to expect to encounter the Lord in the ordinary routines of our family life.

Every child who is born brings us God’s smile and invites us to recognize that life is his gift, a gift to be welcomed with love and preserved with care,
